

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF CHICAGO
DETROIT BRANCH

OFFICE OF THE
MANAGING DIRECTOR

December 10, 1938

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman
Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

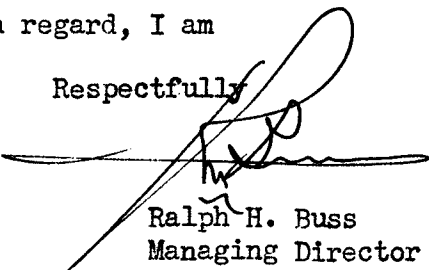

My dear Mr. Eccles:

I have before me a communication from Mr. Allen B. Crow, President of Detroit's Economic Club in which he discusses his recent letter to you.

For several months, I have heard bankers and business executives here express the wish that you be asked to address the Club during this winter season and therefore, presume to voice the desires of these gentlemen, as well as my own, in support of Mr. Crow's invitation. The Club here is enthusiastic, very well supported, and its membership includes leaders in finance and industry.

With high regard, I am

Respectfully

Ralph H. Buss
Managing Director

December 13, 1938.

My dear Mr. Buss:

This is to thank you for your note of December 10th with reference to Mr. Crow's invitation to address The Detroit Economic Club.

I am enclosing a copy of my reply to him, from which you will see that if it is possible for me to arrange it, I shall be glad to take advantage of an opportunity to meet sometime with this distinguished group.

I appreciate your interest and thank you for writing.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Mr. Ralph H. Buss, Managing Director,
Detroit Branch,
Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago,
Detroit, Michigan.

ET:b