OF THE
FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Office Correspondence

Date April 20, 1939To Mr. EcclesSubject: Address before Harvard BusinessFrom Mr. ClaytonSchool Alumni, June, 1939

Mr. Goodman talked over the Board's wire with Mr. Drury, chairman of the speaker's committee for the Harvard Business School Alumni meeting June 16 and 17. I had indicated that if the sessions were held during the day only that you would prefer being the last speaker in the forenoon on Friday. It appears, however, that the meetings are to be held Friday afternoon, a dinner meeting that evening, and the final meeting Saturday forenoon. It is expected that there will be from 400 to 500 present at the dinner meeting which will be held at the Harvard Club in Boston. Mr. Drury said that the committee would prefer having you for the principal speaker for the dinner meeting and I took the liberty of saying that this would meet with your approval. Mr. Drury will write you within the next few days confirming the arrangements and giving more information respecting the entire matter. He also invited me to come along in case you wished to bring me.

Mr. Goodman expressed his appreciation for your giving this matter your prompt attention.
