

Beechwood Hotel
Summit N.J.
November 17, 1939

Mr. Marshall Edles
Dear Sir,

You seem to complain that taxes are not sufficient to meet the demands of our extravagant Government.

If you and the President would put a quiver in the C.I.O. and Mr. John Linn, we old people, who toiled
through our life time, might be able to collect enough from our investments to obtain sufficient income to pay more taxes.

How strikes like this Chrysler well, stops or reduces our dividends, what can you expect?

Whenever I see a striker parading New York streets I look for the C.O. sign. Never a F. of L. Green is a patriot, not a Bolshevik like Lewis.

You have been a business man; Roosevelt never earned a dollar in his life; yet you bet him in all his wild schemes to wreck industry and our investments.

We lost thousands from T.V.A. thousands now, from Lewis's strikes. There will

Received in Chairman's Office

NOV 13 1939

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

Federal Reserve System

Government help not enjoy the fruits of our labor, - and - we didn't work six to eight hours a day, but ten.
Amend that vile Wagner
act, make men work,
not loaf, reduce the power of John Lewis;
and industry can employ more men.

Imagine a paper hawk
in N.Y. getting 20¢ a day to paper one small room.

Is it any wonder we

caut over a home?
Is it any wonder
men are idle?

In an Alabama woman
but Roosevelt methods
have about made me a good Republican in my old age.

Yours truly

Mr. N.B.) Adelaide Cravath