Dear Mr. Eccles:

I send you herewith copy of the agenda for the round table discussion on "Exploring the Government Securities Outlook" (Its Economic Aspects), to be held under the sponsorship of the Savings Bank Journal at the Metropolitan Club in Washington, D. C. at five o'clock, Monday afternoon, February 26, 1940. May I ask you to study this agenda in preparation for the discussion?

I am sending you also copy of the list of conferees who have been invited to attend, most of whom have definitely accepted.

If you have any suggestions which you desire me to incorporate in the agenda which we will use during the discussion, in addition to what is attached, I should appreciate hearing from you.

The first round table discussion under the sponsorship of the Savings Bank Journal was very successful. I am informed that a copy of the Savings Bank Journal for February containing report of the first conference is being sent to you. Each conferee, before any publication, is requested to edit his participation. I am certain that our conference will be constructive and valuable and we will greatly appreciate your contribution to the discussion.

With cordial regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Earl B. Schwulst, Moderator,
