Dear Mr. Thurston:

If available, I should appreciate it if you will be good enough to send 10 copies of the address made by Mr. Eccles before the National Industrial Conference Board, November 28, 1940, to Dr. John Parke Young, (who is a member of our Executive Committee) Van Nuys Building, Seventh Street at Spring, Los Angeles, California.

Very sincerely yours

E. A. Moree

on Monetary Policy, 70 Fifth Avenue,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Moree:

In accordance with your request of December 30, ten copies of Chairman Eccles' address before the National Industrial Conference Board have been mailed to Dr. Young at Los Angeles.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. Thurston.

My dear Miss Benton:

Thank you very much for your courtesy in forwarding ten copies of Mr. Eccles' address to Dr. John Parke Young.

I find that we can use ten additional copies of this address to excellent advantage, and if it is not asking too much, I should appreciate it if you will have this office furnished with the additional copies.

Very sincerely yours

E. A. Moree
