

December 5, 1940.

Dear Ben:

I am enclosing a copy of a talk which the Chairman gave in New York last week. He thought you might be interested in having the full text inasmuch as some badly mixed up accounts appeared in the press.

Sincerely yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.

Dear Elliott:

Thanks for sending me a copy of the Chairman's speech in New York. I was just on the point of writing you for it. I am sure that I will find it helpful and stimulating.

Yours,

Ben V. Cohen
