

January 30, 1941

My dear Senator Norris:

The other day when Judge J. J. Thomas was in Washington attending a meeting in the Federal Reserve Board building, he had a short visit with Mr. Eccles, at which time he said that he had read the Chairman's speech of November 28, 1940, given at the meeting of the National Industrial Conference Board, in New York City.

Because of his interest in the speech, Judge Thomas requested that we send a copy of it to you, letting you know that it was being sent at his request.

I am, therefore, enclosing a copy of the speech herewith.

Respectfully,

Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles

Honorable George W. Norris,
United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.

Miss Va Lois Egbert,
Secretary to
Honorable M. S. Eccles,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Miss Egbert:

Senator Norris wishes me to acknowledge receipt of your letter to him under date of January 30 and to thank you for sending him at the request of Judge Thomas a copy of the speech delivered by Mr. Eccles on November 28, 1940, at a meeting of the National Industrial Conference Board in New York City.

Very truly yours,

John P. Robertson,
Secretary.
