Dear Mr. Young:

Let me thank you again for your invitation to attend the Investment Bankers Association dinner last Friday evening. I enjoyed it.

Mr. Eccles continues to impress me as a man of sound judgment and ample courage. It is unfortunate that conditions force him to be less outspoken than would be natural for him under other circumstances.

Yours very truly,

Mr. C. S. Young

Dear Hap:

Thank you for sending me
Mr. Pettibone's note to you commenting on my speech. I had the pleasure of meeting him several years ago.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. C. D. Young, President,
Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago,
Chicago, Illinois.
