

March 27, 1943.

Dear Mr. Vanderpoel:

You dealt so effectively and generously with my speech that I wanted to write you this note to let you know how much I appreciated it, not on my own account but because of the educational value of the sort of publicity you gave it.

I was interested to note that you picked out the passing reference to Dr. Spahr. I had an impulse to omit that, but found it difficult to resist. I am glad now that I left it in because you pointed it up so well.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Robert P. Vanderpoel,
Financial Editor,
Chicago Herald-American,
