Hon. Marriner S. Eccles
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Bank
Washington, D. C.

Dear Marriner:

I have read with much interest your address before the National Association of Supervisors of State Banks. It seems to my inexperienced judgment a very sound position. I am particularly impressed with the courage and diplomacy which you exhibited in handling such a subject before that audience. It was well done. I appreciate the privilege of reading it.

Very truly yours,

Bill

Dear Bill:

Your thoughtful commentary on my speech to the State Bank Supervisors, which was on my desk upon my return from Utah, was particularly gratifying because, as you know, I have great confidence in your judgment, which I do not consider inexperienced. Your approach is always logical and free from self-interest. You do not have to be an expert to see that our banking set-up has lagged far behind the procession in adaptation to the times.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. W. T. Nardin,
