Honorable Marriner S. Eccles
Chairman of the Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

Dear Marriner:

Let me thank you warmly for sending me the copy of your address before the Tax Institute Symposium in New York, on February 8. As always, I find it full of constructive thought and stimulating interest.

I wonder if you could conveniently send me fifteen copies. I should like to send one to each of our Bank Presidents whom you will recall meeting, and distribute one or two elsewhere where they will do some good.

Best wishes.

Sincerely yours

James Twohy
Governor

Dear Jim:

This is to thank you for your letter of February 19 regarding my recent address at the Tax Institute Symposium.

I am glad you found it interesting and appreciate your writing. It is always gratifying to have an encouraging word from one's friends.

In accordance with your request, I am enclosing fifteen (15) copies which you wish to distribute to your bank presidents and one or two others.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable James Twohy, Governor,
Federal Home Loan Bank System,
