

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
WASHINGTON

November 20, 1944

Dear Marriner:

I have just read a copy of the speech which you, delivered to the National Industrial Conference Board on November 16, 1944, and I hasten to congratulate you on its excellence. I think it's a splendid speech which should be given the widest publicity. Can't you appropriately have it republished in the Federal Reserve Bulletin? I hope you give the gist of it in public statements "again and again and again."

Will you please have your secretary send me twenty-five copies?

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Harry D. White".

H. D. White

Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

November 21, 1944.

Dear Harry:

On returning from New York, I was particularly gratified to find your heartening note of November 20 in regard to my talk before the National Industrial Conference Board.

I am taking the liberty of passing it on to the Editorial Committee of the Bulletin, and in accordance with your request, I am enclosing twenty-five copies.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Harry D. White,
