Dear Mr. Thurston:

I am a subscriber to the "Federal Reserve Bulletin". I have just finished reading (in the December issue) a copy of the address by Harrison S. Eccles, entitled: "The Postwar Price Problem - Inflation & Deflation"

I regard this as one of the most lucid expressions on the problem I have read anywhere. Kindly send me three copies of this address as I wish my business associates to digest it as I have done.

I shall of course remit the necessary charges.

Truly yours,
Reuben Papert

Mr. Reuben Papert,
251 West 30th Street,
New York 1, New York.

Dear Mr. Papert:

In accordance with the request in your letter of January 1, I take pleasure in enclosing three copies of Mr. Eccles' address. There will be no charge.

He will, I know, be gratified by your comment.

Sincerely yours,

Elliott Hurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
