Dear Marriner:

I thought you would be interested in the enclosed editorial which appeared in this morning's Des Moines Register. I have heard many complimentary remarks regarding your address.

It was good to see you and I enjoyed a lot our interesting conversation.

With best regards to you and George, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dear Herb:

I just returned from a trip to Utah, where I had a very pleasant visit with my family and friends. I spent one day at the Duck Club with George, and also spent a few days in Idaho visiting the sugar factories, etc.

Upon my return I found your letter of October 29 had arrived at my office a few days after I was in Des Moines.

I greatly appreciate your favorable comments on my speech before the Iowa bankers. I felt it was a little long and perhaps too technical for the audience, but it is impossible to cover such a complex subject in a short and simple statement. I was happy to have the opportunity to see some of my banker friends and to meet some of the other Iowa bankers. I specially enjoyed seeing and visiting with you.

I was glad to have the clipping from the Des Moines Register covering an editorial on my address, and I want to thank you for sending it on to me.

with kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Herbert L. Horton, President,
