Dear Mr. Eccles:

I thoroughly enjoyed talking with you at the Wattis party. It was a privilege to be able to discuss so many subjects so informally with you.

May I congratulate you on the excellent address you presented to the Commonwealth Club. I took Dad and several of my Magna associates with me and we were all most interested in your speech. The problems and challenge you raised is most provocative and has been the subject of several conversations.

Thank you again for the opportunity to talk to you.

Best regards,

W R Kimball, Jr.

Dear Billy:

It was most thoughtful of you to write me relative to my recent visit in San Francisco and my appearance before the Commonwealth Club.

I am always glad to have the reactions of others to my public appearances and I am happy to know that you and your friends felt that my address was provocative and challenging. I appreciate your complimentary expressions.

I, too, enjoyed our little visit at the Wattis party. It was a pleasure to see you again and to learn that you are liking your work and making progress.

Kindest regards!

Sincerely,

Mr. W. R. Kimball, Jr.,
