CHICAGO AND NORTH WESTERN RAILWAY COMPANY
OFFICE OF PRESIDENT
CHICAGO

February 13, 1936.

Dear Mr. Szymczak:

The Economic Club of Chicago, of which I have the honor to be President, has had the pleasure of entertaining a number of the nation's outstanding men. The Club now would like to enjoy the privilege of a visit from the Honorable M. S. Eccles.

On several occasions the Club has acquainted Mr. Eccles with its desire to hear from him at a time convenient to him. I am wondering if you would be good enough to remind Mr. Eccles that our invitation still stands, and that we would particularly appreciate an opportunity to hear from him at our March or April dinner.

Governor Schaller is a member of the Economic Club, as are most of the leading business men in the City. The organization, however, is especially noted for the young men in its membership. Distinguished gentlemen like Dr. Butler, Newton Baker and Walter Lippmann have said to me that nowhere in their experience have they ever faced a more inspiring audience than that provided by the Economic Club. The attached leaflet will tell you in detail some of the objects of the organization and will acquaint you with its officers and directorate. I believe Mr. Eccles will remember Governor Schaller and Mr. Kelly of Chicago talking to him about the Club. Our meetings are held in the evening.

Incidentally, I should like to have the privilege of tendering a luncheon to Mr. Eccles on the day he addresses the Economic Club. We would invite forty or fifty of Chicago's business leaders to join us, and with these gentlemen Mr. Eccles could talk informally and in confidence.

Hoping to hear from you soon, and with personal regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Edgar V. Seeger

Hon. M. S. Szymczak,
Member, Federal Reserve Board,
Washington, D. C.

February 19, 1936.

Mr. Fred W. Sargent, President,
Chicago and North Western Railway Company,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Sargent:

Mr. Szymczak passed along to me your letter of February 13th renewing your invitation to speak before the Economic Club of Chicago. I should particularly like to take advantage of your courtesy, but I find it absolutely impossible to make any further speaking engagements during the next few months inasmuch as the numerous changes which are being effected under the Banking Act of 1935 require so much of my time and close attention that I am not free to leave Washington during this period.

I would especially like to meet with you and a group of Chicago's business and banking leaders to whom I might speak informally and in confidence. I am hoping that an opportunity will come about later on to be with you. Again let me say that I very much appreciate your courtesy.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) M. S. Eccles

Chairman.

The Economic Club
of Chicago

1935 - 1936

The Economic Club of Chicago

OBJECT The object of the Club is to aid in the creation and expression of an enlightened public opinion on the important economic and social questions of the day.

MEMBERSHIP The Club was organized in 1927 for Chicago's outstanding young men. The membership consists largely of men whose average age is in the thirties. A number of older leaders in business and the professions also have been members from the start.

MEETINGS Four regular dinner-meetings are held each fiscal year—between the months of October and June. On these occasions speakers discuss questions of economic, social or business importance.

DUES The fiscal year begins October 1. Annual dues for membership are $15, payable in advance. There is no initiation fee. Dues include dinner tickets to the four meetings.

Executive Secretary
JOSEPH H. DION
One North La Salle Street
Telephone Randolph 0791

The Economic Club of Chicago is now in its ninth year. Among those who have addressed the Club are:

Leonard P. Ayres
Newton D. Baker
Nicholas Murray Butler
Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd
L. A. Downs
James W. Gerard
George H. Houston
Arthur M. Hyde
E. W. Kemmerer
Frank R. Kent
Frank Knox
James M. Landis
Walter Lippmann
John McKinlay
Sir Josiah Stamp
Silas H. Strawn

Speakers during the current season will be drawn from an equally distinguished group.

The Saturday Forum will again be a feature of the Club's winter activities.
SATURDAY FORUM These meetings, open to members only, afford an opportunity to each one present to express his views on the subject under discussion.

CHICAGO AND NORTH WESTERN RAILWAY COMPANY
OFFICE OF PRESIDENT
CHICAGO

February 21, 1936.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

You have so many warm friends here and our business men are so anxious to hear a word from you that I am writing to ask if you will not make an exception and come to Chicago for one day so that some of us may meet with you and break bread at a noon luncheon together, and then talk to The Economic Club at night, even though you only speak informally and for a few minutes. This would take but one full day of your time, and we could make your sojourn here very pleasant and, I believe, helpful not only to you but to the business men of Chicago who are anxious to cooperate with you.

We can fix the date of our meeting any day in March that would be most convenient for you.

The Economic Club of Chicago consists of eight hundred and fifty of the leading Executives of the City, a large majority of them being young, active and progressive men, and your appearance at this time with these Executives I am sure you would find to be most profitable and pleasant. I can imagine no meeting that would be of greater value to the business world just now than to have you come to Chicago.

With kindest regards, I am,

Most sincerely yours,

Frederick J. Sargent

Hon. M. S. Eccles, Chairman,
Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

Will visit in Chicago in early fall

February 26, 1936.

Mr. Fred W. Sargent, President,
Chicago and North Western Railway Company,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Sargent:

Your letter of February 13th to Mr. Szymczak, to which I replied on February 19th, and your letter of February 21st addressed directly to me are so cordial that I wish I were able to say definitely at this time just when it will be possible for me to come to Chicago. Unfortunately, circumstances are such, as I said in my previous letter to you, that I do not feel free to make any specific commitments as yet.

I hope that before very long I will be able to get to Chicago and take advantage of the opportunity to meet with you and the members of the Economic Club. I am confident that it would be as pleasant and profitable for me as your letter promises. Please be assured of my appreciation of your cordiality.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

Mr. Emil A. Stake, of our Executive Committee, has asked me to send you a list of those present at yesterday's luncheon. I take pleasure in enclosing a list arranged in order as per the attached diagram.

I am also enclosing some newspaper clippings which no doubt will be of interest to you.

We are all elated over the excellent talk you gave us and thoroughly appreciate the opportunity of meeting with you.
