PRINCETON-HARVARD-YALE CONFERENCE

on "Government and Economic Stability"

Under the Auspices of the Daily Princetonian, Harvard Crimson and Yale News

at Princeton University, May 8th and 9th, 1936

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Chairman: JOSEPH L. BRODERICK, Daily Princetonian
JOHN B. BOWDITCH, Harvard Crimson
WILLIAM H. ORRICK, JR., Yale News

May 14, 1936

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles
Chairman, Board of Governors of Federal Reserve System
Washington Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I should like to thank you at this time on behalf of the Princeton-Harvard-Yale conference for your kindness in attending the inaugural session of the series at Princeton last Saturday.

I need hardly tell you that without your presence the Banking table would have been at a tremendous loss. As it was, the consensus rated the afternoon session the most successful of the entire conference. The undergraduates were inspired by the discussion under your guidance and I cannot tell you how much you contributed to any success the Conference may have enjoyed.

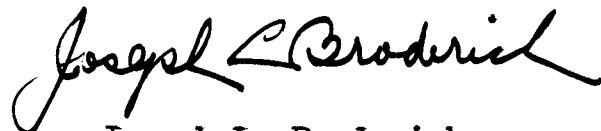

It seems a great deal to undergraduates to be given an opportunity of discussing the intricate problems of government and business with men like yourself who are handling them.

Thank you very much, Mr. Eccles. I realize the sacrifice which attending the conference must have meant to you. Believe me, we appreciate your contribution from the bottom of our hearts.

I am looking forward to seeing you next year in Washington.

With warm regards, I remain

Gratefully,

Joseph L. Broderick.
