

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF CLEVELAND

PRESIDENT

OFFICE OF THE ~~MANAGER~~

March 6, 1936

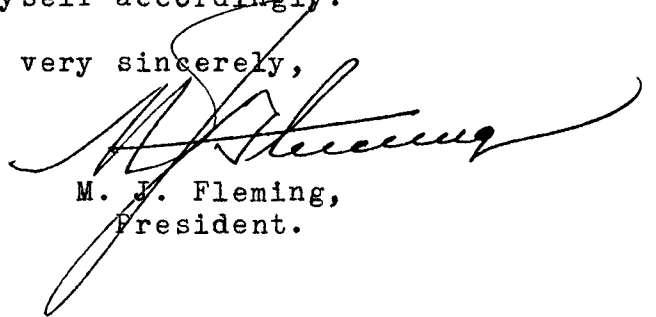

Dear Governor Eccles:

I understand that you are to be a guest of Dean Schneider of the University of Cincinnati on March 20th.

As I have also received an invitation from the Dean, it has occurred to me that probably you will be in the city of Cincinnati early on the morning of the 20th, and in that event I should, of course, be very glad to meet you - possibly add to your entertainment.

I shall appreciate it if you will advise me of your plans, and will govern myself accordingly.

Yours very sincerely,

M. J. Fleming,
President.

Hon. M. S. Eccles, Chairman,
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

March 9, 1936.

Mr. M. J. Fleming, President,
Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Fleming:

I appreciate your offer to meet the train when I arrive in Cincinnati on the morning of March 20th and add to my entertainment while there. I expect to leave Washington on the evening of March 19th, arriving in Cincinnati at 8:23 a.m. March 20th. There is no need of your bothering to meet me at the train. I shall, however, be very glad to meet you at the hotel where you are staying, if you will advise me of the name of the hotel. If agreeable to you, we could have breakfast together.

I would like very much sometime during the day, if it can be arranged, to meet the officers and directors of the Cincinnati Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank, as well as the leading bankers of Cincinnati. It may be that luncheon would be the most appropriate and convenient time for me to meet with such a gathering. However, I will leave it up to you to make such arrangements as you feel will give me the opportunity desired.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
