Honorable Marriner S. Eccles
Chairman, Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington Building
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

I am very happy to have your letter of February 17, accepting the invitation of the American Society of Newspaper Editors to speak at its meeting in Washington.

The "off the record" discussion of Federal Reserve problems will be most interesting to our members.

May I suggest that we fix the date as 12:30 p.m., April 16? A luncheon will precede your informal talk.

The Society very much appreciates your acceptance.

Sincerely yours,

MHCreager:AK

My dear Mr. Creager:

This will acknowledge your letter of February 19th relative to the luncheon of The American Society of Newspaper Editors to be held in Washington on April 16th at 12:30 p.m. As far as I can foresee at this time, the date and hour will be agreeable to me.

I would appreciate your advising me as to the place at which the luncheon will be held.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
