Mr. M. V. Atwood, Secretary,
The American Society of Newspaper Editors,
Times-Union Building,
Rochester, New York.

Dear Mr. Atwood:

Mr. Eccles requested me to acknowledge your letter of April 6th and to say that he had on yesterday addressed a letter to Mr. Creager stating that he hoped and expected to be able to speak before the Society on Friday noon, April 16th, but that as he had previously indicated to Mr. Creager, it was to be extemporaneous, entirely off the record and not for quotation, attribution or publication in any way. Accordingly, he will have no copy or abstract of what he will say at that time.

Sincerely yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
