Dear Mr. Eccles:

First, let me say how much I enjoyed your talk this morning before the New York State Bankers Association. It was one of the best you have ever given. I heard many favorable comments on it at luncheon time.

The Trust Division's Mid-Winter Trust Conference will be held in New York February 3, 4, and 5. On Wednesday, February 4, we are having a session devoted to a discussion on common trust funds. I have invited Walter Wyatt to participate in that program and we are very anxious to have him. President Richard Stockton of the Trust Division and I both hope that Walter will be able to be with us. There are some questions that have arisen in regard to common trust funds and Walter is the one man to answer them with authority.

With best regards, I am

Cordially yours,

Merle E. Selecman
