Dear Mr. Thurston:

I was delighted to receive your letter of January 22, saying that Mr. Eccles has agreed to speak before the Alumni of the Graduate School of Banking, in New York city, Saturday evening, April 6.

You will be advised as soon as we know definitely where the meeting will be held.

If, meanwhile, Mr. Eccles selects a specific title for his talk, or if you have any definite ideas about how you would like to have us handle the publicity on the meeting, I shall be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely yours
