

HAROLD STONIER

April 8, 1946

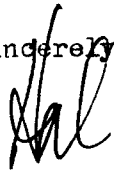

Dear Marriner:

Thanks again for taking the time to come over to be with the men Saturday night. They were all greatly impressed with your splendid address and many have called me this morning to express appreciation of your courtesy in fitting this program into your busy schedule.

I trust that being away from golf last Saturday will not have any serious effects upon your future financial return in that direction.

Hope to see you again soon.

Sincerely
