Dear Mr. Vennema:

As the Chairman left this morning for Philadelphia I am acknowledging your letter of November 3 asking for a copy of what he will have to say before the Robert Morris Associates.

Mr. Eccles has no prepared address, and in fact was not at all certain as to what he would have to say to the Robert Morris Associates, but in any case it will be extemporaneous and off the record. Accordingly, I cannot comply with your request.

Sincerely yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Assistant to the Chairman.
