

McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, Inc

WASHINGTON OFFICE
1252 NATIONAL PRESS BUILDING
WASHINGTON 4, D. C.

January 13, 1948

Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

This will confirm your acceptance of the invitation extended by Tom Falco to talk to the McGraw-Hill editors' meeting January 22 at 5:00 p.m. The meeting will be in Parlor 1 of the Statler Hotel.

These semi-annual meetings of McGraw-Hill editors in Washington are held to afford the men in our company who write and supervise the editorial content of McGraw-Hill magazines an opportunity, first-hand, to talk with top Government officials and orient themselves on what's happening in Washington and on Government's approach to forthcoming problems.

As Mr. Falco told you, the meetings are "off-the-record" in the sense that nothing you say will be attributed to you, but may be used as background material to assist our editors in their interpretation of events to their businessmen readers.

We look forward with considerable pleasure to our meeting with you.

Sincerely yours,

George Doying
Chief Correspondent
Washington Bureau

GD:cwr

January 15, 1948.

Mr. George Doying,
Chief Correspondent, Washington Bureau,
McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, Inc.,
1252 National Press Building,
Washington 4, D. C.

Dear Mr. Doying:

As I have just advised Mr. McGraw, I am pleased to accept your invitation to meet with the McGraw-Hill editors at 5:00 p.m. on January 22 in Parlor 1 of the Statler Hotel. As you know, I have been privileged to meet with this group before and I feel that it is helpful from the standpoint of the Reserve System to have these opportunities for frank, off-the-record discussion. If they are beneficial for your editors, so much the better.

I shall look forward to being with you on this occasion.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

ET:b