Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Hurley:

In Mr. Eccles' absence I wish to acknowledge your telegram of October 29 which was received by us on October 30, 1948.

Mr. Eccles' address before the National Industrial Conference Board in New York, on September 23, 1948, was an extemporaneous one, and, therefore, we do not have any copies available. You may be able to secure a copy direct from the National Industrial Conference Board.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles.

Mr. William L. Wilson, Vice President,
Commercial Investment Trust, Incorporated,
One Park Avenue,
New York 16, New York.

Dear Wilson:

This is to acknowledge your letter of September 27 requesting a copy of the address which Governor Eccles gave before the National Industrial Conference Board on September 23, 1948.

Mr. Eccles' address was an extemporaneous one and, therefore, we have no copies available for distribution. We would suggest that you get in touch with the Conference Board as I believe they plan to have copies made, and these will be ready within a short time.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I am writing to request a copy of the speech you delivered at the National Industrial Conference Board meeting in New York on September 23rd. I am interested in your observations on the sale of government securities by non-bank investors in connection with a paper I am writing.

I would very much appreciate your help in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Thomas Donald,

October 5, 1948.
