Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman
Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

Next to the subject of "peace" I believe women of the country are more interested in high prices than any other national issue.

To meet the request from clubwomen everywhere for help in combating inflation, we are presenting a panel on this subject at the coming Board of Directors Meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Could you take two hours from your busy life to come to a luncheon at the Hotel Statler, at 12:15 P.M. Saturday, October 16, to participate in our panel? Our plan is to present two or three highest authorities for ten or fifteen minute speeches, then turn the session into an open forum, with the panel answering questions from the floor.

The group of about 175 women will be the leaders who are promoting the program of this large organization in every part of the United States, and therefore very far-reaching in influence. If you care for additional information, I shall be glad to call at your office to answer any questions.

We need your cooperation and I shall hope for your early acceptance.

Very sincerely yours,

Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck
President
