Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

Thank you very much for your telephone call from Washington on Wednesday. Mr. DeTuro, our Faculty Adviser, has informed me of your gracious acceptance to address the members of Phi Alpha Kappa on Wednesday, February 16, 1949.

In order to accommodate a few more members of the faculty and friends, the Fraternity dinner will be held at the Downtown Athletic Club, 18 West Street, New York instead of the Faculty Club as had previously been planned.

Will you kindly call me at the University, Extension 583, when you arrive from Washington so that we may make arrangements to escort you to the Downtown Athletic Club on Wednesday evening.

We all look forward to an interesting evening.

Very truly yours,

Raymond E. Fox
President
