Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, Governor
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Marriner:

This is to remind you that you have something bordering on a commitment to me to come here at the time of your trip to Iowa to make an address. As I recall it, that engagement is for sometime in February.

I shall appreciate your letting me know what your present plans are, and I sincerely trust that you still expect to make the contemplated trip. We certainly would like to have you, and would plan to have a meeting of our Board at the time you are here.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Gavin:

I just received your letter reminding me that I agreed to come to Kansas City in case I made an address in Iowa sometime in February. I was unable to accept the invitation to speak in Iowa and, therefore, will not be in that section of the country in February.

I expect to go West the latter part of March or first part of April and will plan to stop off at Kansas City at that time. I will let you know definitely at a later date. Prior to that time I will no doubt be seeing you in Washington.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. H. G. Leedy, President,
Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City,
Kansas City 18, Missouri.
