Dear Mr. Eccles:

I regretted that train reservations forced me to leave the meeting at Kansas City a few minutes before its close.

I did wish to express to you the extent to which I appreciated the opportunity of meeting you personally and also to tell you how much I enjoyed the remarks and comments you made at Kansas City. They were certainly enlightening, thought-provoking, and definite.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Cotton:

Upon my return from the west, where I spent three weeks after I left Kansas City, I was pleased to find your letter of April 4, I greatly appreciate your writing me.

It is always helpful to have the reaction of others to my public appearances and I am happy to know that you felt my remarks were enlightening and thought-provoking. I want to thank you for those complimentary comments.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles.
