Dear Mr. Eccles:

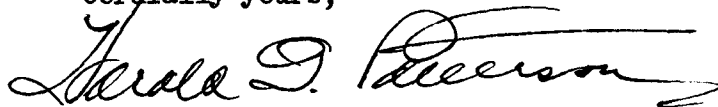

Mr. John Boman, Jr., President of the Atlanta Lawyers Club, has sent me a copy of his letter to you dated November 22, 1949. The lawyers and the Directors understand that we are to communicate with you again around the first of February relative to a final reply.

We are certainly hoping that you will be able to be with us at that time.

With best regards, I am

Cordially yours,
