Dear Mr. Eccles:

I would appreciate receiving a copy of your address before the Cooperative League of the U. S. A. for coverage in the Association's monthly magazine, COMMERCE. As we are practically on deadline, it would be very helpful if we could get the text by return airmail. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sturdy:

In reply to your letter requesting a copy of Mr. Eccles' address in Chicago recently, this is to inform you that the speech was extemporaneous and we, therefore, do not have a written copy. However, a press release was written and we are enclosing a copy of it.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles.
