Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, Governor
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

Would it be possible for you to make available to me a copy of your talk to the Congress of the Cooperative League in Chicago and reported in the American Banker about ten days ago?

Incidentally, if you maintain any kind of a mailing list for such speeches, I should appreciate very much having my name placed on it.

Regards,

Paul W. McCracken

Professor of Business Conditions

Mr. Paul W. McCracken,
Professor of Business Conditions,
School of Business Administration,
University of Michigan,
Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Dear Mr. McCracken:

Your letter of October 26, addressed to Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, requesting a copy of Mr. Eccles' talk to the Congress of the Cooperative League in Chicago, has been received in his absence.

Mr. Eccles' speech was extemporaneous, but he did issue a press release on it, which covers most of the points he brought out in the address with the exception of those on taxing cooperatives. I am enclosing a copy of the release.

I am sure Mr. Eccles will be very glad to have me place your name on his mailing list to receive copies of future speeches and articles.

Very truly yours,

Va Lois Egbert,
Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles.
