The Honorable Marriner S. Eccles
Federal Reserve Board
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I was delighted to talk with you this morning and confirm Friday noon, March 2, for your address before The Executives' Club of Chicago. I was glad to have the names you mentioned over the phone, and we shall send each of them a formal invitation to join you at the Speaker's Table. If any other names occur to you, I would be glad to have them, and we shall invite them also.

Our luncheon meeting that day will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Morrison Hotel, and we will arrange to have a suite for you there. I shall look forward to hearing from your secretary, at her convenience, to learn of your expected arrival time at the airport, where we will meet you.

I anticipate with great pleasure the opportunity of seeing you again, and I know that you will have a large and enthusiastic audience to hear your address. Please don't hesitate to call on us if there is anything we may do here to be helpful in connection with your trip to Chicago.

Very sincerely yours,

A. T. Etcheson

Mr. A. T. Etcheson,
Executive Director,
The Executives' Club of Chicago,
Suite 1126 West Washington Street,
Chicago 2, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Etcheson:

In accordance with the request in your letter of February 19, I have plane reservations to leave Washington on the American Airlines flight at 8:30 a.m. on the morning of Friday, March 2d arriving in Chicago at 10:30 a.m. I appreciate your arranging to have someone meet me at the airport and take me to the Morrison Hotel where the luncheon is to be held.

I have also made reservations to leave Chicago on the American Airlines flight at 6:00 p.m. of the same day, arriving back in Washington at 9:30 p.m.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles.
