Dear Marriner:

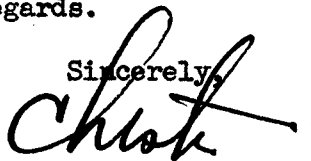

Just a note to thank you personally for your kindness in coming out to talk before the Executives' Club last Friday.

I am glad that you departed from the prepared address. You did a good job and I am sure that all in attendance took away something to think about.

If and when you do decide to retire from the Board and return to Salt Lake City I hope that you will give my brother, Elrick B. Davis, a ring at The Deseret News.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,
