

STEWART COSGRIFF
DENVER, COLORADO

Dear Marriner:

I am delighted that you are going to be over here next week. Unless you are seeking isolation, I would appreciate learning your time and method of arrival and probable departure, and also your social inclinations during the interval.

If you have any spare time I would of course like to see you, and if it would fit in with your plans, to arrange a small luncheon, cocktail party or dinner party, if you are going to be here long enough. I presume you have reservations, but if not, drop me a wire.

Looking forward to seeing you, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Stewart:

Thanks for your thoughtful letter of March 22nd. According to my present plans I do not expect to have any spare time while I am in Denver. You can be sure if I do there is no one I would sooner spend it with than you.

I am to be the Guest Speaker on the evening of April 3rd of the Mile High Club. I think the meeting is at the Brown Palace Hotel. I expect to arrive in Denver at 5:25 p.m., Flight 618, on that day and leave there on the 4:00 a.m. plane for Salt Lake where I will catch a plane that morning for Boise. I may need a few hours sleep after the dinner meeting with the Mile High Club.

I will look forward to seeing you at the meeting, if not before.

With warm personal regards, I am -

Sincerely,

M. S. Eccles
