Re: MILE HIGH CLUB

Dear Mr. Eccles:

Your letter of March 26 just received.

A room has been reserved for you at the Brown Palace Hotel. I am a little fearful about your late arrival at 5:25 P.M. on April 3, because the cocktail hour is at 6:15 and your plane might be late; the dinner itself begins at 7:15. Personally, I don't touch cocktails, but the crowd will be gathered at that time and will undoubtedly be looking forward to meeting you, and planes, as you are doubtless aware, do not always have a prompt landing at the appointed hour.

If you should get in before 5:25 let me know so that I may see you in advance of hotel arrival.

We are looking forward with great interest to that speech of yours. With warm regards,

Sincerely yours,

L. Ward Bannister
