Marriner S. Eccles, Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

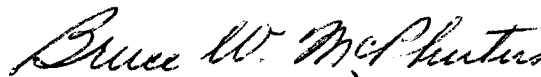

Thank you very much for your letter of January 31, 1951. You mentioned that you were enclosing a copy of a recent statement given by you before the Joint Committee on the "Economic Report". This statement was not enclosed with your letter and we shall appreciate you sending a copy of it along to us.

This morning we received the glossy photograph and the biographical sketch from your secretary.

Enclosed is a reservation we have made for you at the Biltmore Hotel. In the event that you wish us to change it in any way, please let me know.

Again may I say that all of us are looking forward to meeting you and hearing your address.

Sincerely yours,

B. W. McPheeters
Secretary
