SIDNEY B. CONGDON
PRESIDENT

March 20, 1951

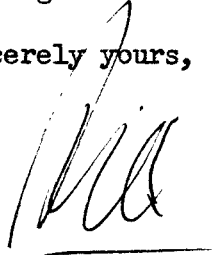

Dear Marriner:

I have learned from Ray Gidney that you are going to pay a visit to Cleveland on Friday, April 20, which is fine. That is the day of the opening game of the baseball season, when by long established custom we have a luncheon for our correspondent bankers and then entertain them at the ball game.

If you would be good enough to join us, I and all of us here would be delighted to have you. I hope very much that you can come.

With very best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Marriner S. Eccles,
Member of the Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve Board,
Washington, D. C.

March 26, 1951.

Mr. Sidney B. Congdon, President,
The National City Bank,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Sid:

Your letter of March 20th has been forwarded to me in Utah. It is my present plan to visit Cleveland Friday the 20th and Saturday the 21st. I note your plans to have a luncheon for your correspondent bankers and then will entertain them at the baseball game. I appreciate your invitation for me to join you and I shall be very glad to do so. I will be flying in from Milwaukee that morning and will no doubt arrive in Cleveland in adequate time to be with you.

With warm personal regards.

Sincerely,

M. S. Eccles
