My dear Mr. [unclear]

I am spending some time here after a heart attack last summer that nearly took me out of your hair for keeps.

But I am not writing you about that but about your very sensible approach to market collateral credit. I have only secondary information about your message about this and wonder if some one among your Secretaries could be asked to send me any printed rules, regulations or your personal comments. They seem good.

Very cordially

W. C. Coker

Dear Alex:

I was sorry to hear that you suffered a heart attack last summer, but glad to know that you are better and hope you will keep on improving in the Florida sunshine.

As you requested in your note of January 23, I am enclosing copies of Regulations T and U, with amendments, and also a copy of the statement I released at the time of the Board's action in increasing margin requirements to 100 per cent. I appreciate your kind references and trust you will be of the same mind after reading the full text of my statement.

with best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. A. Wall,

My dear Marines.

Indeed your country in sending me the material as well as your kind expression of friendliness are very much appreciated.

We need more men with abdominal development approaching your courage and leadership. It has seemed to me there has been too much slippage.

Very truly
