Executive Session

Secretary Geithner, the Chairperson, called the executive session of the meeting of the Financial Stability Oversight Council (Council) to order at 1:00 P.M. (EST).

The Chairperson turned to the meeting agenda, which had been previously distributed to the members together with copies of the resolution and other materials. The agenda for the meeting included the following subjects: (1) a macro-environment overview and an update on Europe; (2) an update on housing market issues; (3) an update on Council efforts regarding Dodd-Frank coordination; (4) a discussion of financial market utilities; and (5) consideration of, and a vote on, a resolution approving the minutes from the Council’s meetings on October 11, October 31, and November 11, 2011.

1. Macro-environment Overview: Update on Europe

The Chairperson introduced the agenda item regarding the current macro-environment overview and an update on Europe. The Chairperson asked Lael Brainard, Under Secretary for International Affairs at the Treasury, and Nellie Liang, Director of the Office of Financial Stability Policy and Research at the Federal Reserve, to make the presentation. After the presentation, members of the Council asked questions and discussed related issues.

2. Update on Housing Market Issues

The Chairperson called on Mary J. Miller, the Assistant Secretary for Financial Markets at the Treasury; Karen Pence, the Assistant Director of Research and Statistics at the Federal Reserve; and Mario Ugoletti, the Special Advisor to the Director of the FHFA, to present an update on housing market issues. The members of the Council asked questions about the presentation.

3. Update on Council Efforts to Increase Dodd-Frank Coordination

The Chairperson raised the agenda item regarding Dodd-Frank coordination. He called on Amias Gerety, Deputy Assistant Secretary for FSOC at the Treasury, to present. Building on the discussion from the October meeting, Mr. Gerety described the coordination of government agencies on the implementation of the Dodd-Frank Act, including the priorities at the agencies. After Mr. Gerety’s presentation, the members of the Council discussed the coordination effort.

The Chairperson then turned to the next item on the agenda, a discussion of financial market utilities (FMUs). He called on Lance Auer, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Financial Institutions Policy at the Treasury; Jeff Stehm, the Senior Associate Director for Financial Market Infrastructure Oversight at the Federal Reserve; Robert Wasserman, the Associate Director for the Division of Clearing and Intermediary Oversight at the CFTC; and Peter Curley, the Associate Director for the Division of Trading and Markets at the SEC, to give the presentation. The presentation included a discussion of the possible advancement of certain FMUs from stage 1 to stage 2 of the evaluation process. The members of the Council asked questions about the presentation and discussed the designation process for FMUs.

The Chairperson asked for a motion approving the resolution to approve the minutes from previous meetings, which was made and seconded. The Council then approved the resolution by unanimous vote.

The Chairperson then asked for a motion to adjourn the meeting. The Chairperson adjourned the meeting at approximately 3:00 P.M. (EST).
