TO THE BANK ADDRESSED:

We quote for your guidance the text of a telegram received from the Treasury Department at Washington under date of October 23, 1917:

"In order to comply with Secretary's announcement for preservation of names and addresses of subscribers of second Liberty Loan will you kindly advise all banks and trust companies and others throughout your district submitting group subscriptions that the Department desires their co-operation and later will request through you submission to your bank of the names and addresses of all subscribers for second Liberty Loan."
