CONVERSION OF REGISTERED BONDS WITH CHANGE IN OWNERSHIP

TO THE BANK OR TRUST COMPANY ADDRESSED:

The Treasury Department has modified the provisions contained in Department Circular No. 114, dated May 9, 1918, with respect to bond conversion, in the following particulars:

CONVERSION OF REGISTERED BONDS WITH CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP.
In the event a registered bond has been duly assigned for transfer, the transferee may execute a second assignment to "the Secretary of the Treasury for conversion", and such registered bond so assigned, when received at the Department, will be converted in regular course and 4½% bond issued in the name of such transferee.

In submitting the above class of transactions please observe the requirements that a separate form (310-B, 311-B or 312-B) be used and that other transactions be not listed on the same form.
