Circular No. 119
October 26, 1918

TO THE BANK OR TRUST COMPANY ADDRESSED:

I M P O R T A N T

The Secretary of the Treasury has extended the time for telegraphing to the Treasury Department our final total of subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan. Therefore, it will be possible to accept subscriptions from banks which are received by us not later than 3:00 P. M., Wednesday, October 30, 1918.

This will enable banks to cover by their subscriptions to us any belated applications which they may have received from Liberty Loan Organizations.

There is enclosed herewith copy of Form 401 (full-paid application), also copy of Form 402 (final summary of subscriptions). Unless the amount is large, please use Form 401 and make payment in full. If the amount is larger than you feel justified in paying in full, you may use Form 402, accompanied by 10% payment. If this form is used, be sure to mark it, in red ink, "Additional."
