FOR SALES OF WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATE STAMPS AND

U. S. THRIFT STAMPS

Collateral Agents of the Second Class already qualified to a sufficient amount pursuant to department circulars Nos. 95 and 101 for the sale of War Savings Certificates and War Savings Certificate Stamps, series of 1918, will not be required to file a new formal application as agents, nor resolutions and pledge agreements and they will by the receipt or sale of War Savings Certificates or War Savings Certificate Stamps, series of 1919, or by the receipt or sale of U. S. Thrift Stamps after December 31, 1918, be conclusively presumed to have assented to all the terms and provisions hereof.

Collateral security pledged or to be pledged under any of the circulars above mentioned will be conclusively deemed to be pledged as collateral security thereunder and hereunder.

Collateral Agents of the Second Class will remit in the usual manner for War Savings Certificate Stamps sold in December (War Savings Stamps at $4.23 each - Thrift Stamps at 25 cents each). Return to us all War Savings Certificate Stamps and War Savings Certificates remaining on hand after close of business December 31, 1918. The returned War Savings Certificate Stamps of the 1918 series may be exchanged for War Savings Certificate Stamps of the 1919 series or credited to your consignment account, at your option.

U. S. Thrift Cards and Thrift Stamps of the series of 1918 will be used and accepted in payment of War Savings Certificate Stamps of the series of 1919 in the same manner prevailing in 1918.
