

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF CHICAGO

79 WEST MONROE STREET

April 2nd, 1919.

TO THE MEMBER BANKS ADDRESSED:

With a view to improving our service to member banks, we are today forwarding under separate cover, a supply of Cash Letter forms for your use in sending us items for collection and credit. All remittances for credit to your account should be listed on this form in accordance with the instructions thereon, and we shall be pleased to furnish a further supply on request.

We are also forwarding a rubber stamp to be used in inserting your name and A. B. A. number on the Cash Letter forms.

Very truly yours,

S. B. CRAMER,

Cashier.
