Information for Cash Agents of the First Class When Surrendering War Savings Certificates and Thrift Stamps of the 1919 Series for Cash Redemption.

Under terms of Treasury Department Circular No. 173, dated December 10, 1919, Cash Agents of the First Class and Sales Stations are required to surrender to us prior to January 31, 1920, or to incorporated banks or trust companies prior to January 20, 1920, all unsold War Savings Stamps of the 1919 series or Thrift Stamps on hand.

The Federal Reserve Bank and incorporated banks and trust companies are authorized to receive such War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps and to make cash reimbursement at the rate of $4.24 for each War Savings Stamp and 25¢ for each Thrift Stamp so surrendered.

Cash Agents of the First Class and Sales Stations surrendering stamps for redemption must show certificate of appointment or other satisfactory evidence of their appointment. No agent may redeem in excess of $1,000 maturity value War Savings Stamps without special authority from the Secretary of the Treasury.

Incorporated banks and trust companies may forward to us for collection such stamps received from agents or Sales Stations together with a statement showing the name of the authorized agent of the First Class or Sales Station from which the stamps have been received and the number of stamps surrendered.

Any incorporated bank or trust company wishing to qualify for the sale of War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates of the 1920 series will submit to us for approval their application on form L & C 337.
