

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF DALLAS

February 2nd, 1920.

TO THE MEMBER BANKS ADDRESSED;

We are in receipt of a communication from the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, Mass., which in part is as follows:

"Effective with January 20th, the post-office Department has authorized the numbering of postal stations in Boston as a means of obtaining greater speed and efficiency in the delivering of mail throughout the District. In sending mail to this bank, we would thank you to use the number which has been assigned to this District. We shall also appreciate it if you will inform the member banks in your district who are sending cash letters direct for your account to use this number. Mail sent to us should be addressed as follows:

Federal Reserve Bank,
53 State Street,
Boston, 7, Mass."

Your co-operation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly,

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

2217

2217