

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF DALLAS

Circular No. 27
Series of 1921

April 30, 1921.

INDEX-DIGEST OF FEDERAL RESERVE BULLETIN.

TO THE MEMBER BANK ADDRESSED:

For the information of interested banks and individuals, the following paragraph is quoted from the March issue of the Federal Reserve Bulletin:

"The Federal Reserve Board will publish shortly, primarily for its use and that of Federal Reserve Banks, an index-digest of the Federal Reserve Bulletin, prepared by Mr. C. S. Hamlin, one of its members. The digest covers the first six volumes of the Bulletin, from the years 1915 to 1920, inclusive, and contains an abstract of all published decisions and rulings of the Federal Reserve Board and of the other matter contained in the Bulletin.

"The Board will print a sufficient number of copies to supply the demand of banks and others who may desire to purchase it.

"The price will be $2 per volume, bound in cloth in the same manner as the Bulletin. SUBSCRIPTIONS SHOULD BE ADDRESSED TO THE FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD, WASHINGTON. As the edition is to be a limited one, those desiring copies should send in their orders promptly."

In view of the fact that the index-digest above referred to will contain an abstract of the published decisions and rulings of the Federal Reserve Board, it will prove to be a very valuable volume to every member bank, whether or not a file of the Federal Reserve Bulletin has been preserved. We would, therefore, respectfully suggest and recommend that you place your order for a copy with the Federal Reserve Board in Washington IMMEDIATELY.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "R. L. Van Zandt".

Governor.