

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF DALLAS

Circular No. 21
Series of 1922

Dallas, Texas, November 1, 1922.

CHECKS ON CERTAIN NON-MEMBER STATE BANKS IN NORTH CAROLINA TEMPORARILY UNACCEPTABLE FOR COLLECTION.

REVISED LIST—No. 17

To the Member Bank Addressed:

You will find herewith a revised list of plaintiff banks in an injunction suit against the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, which supersedes the list of banks accompanying our Circular No. 2, Series of 1922, entitled "Checks on Certain Non-Member State Banks in North Carolina Temporarily Unacceptable for Collection."

As described in that circular we cannot for the present accept for collection any checks drawn on the banks listed because of a temporary injunction restraining the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond from returning as dishonored any checks, drawn upon any one of the banking institutions joining the injunction proceedings, which the drawee bank refuses to pay except in exchange at less than par.

Revised lists will be published and sent to you from time to time as occasion requires.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "B. A. McKinney".

Governor.

The following banks have not become parties to the suit, nevertheless they have signified to us their intention to take advantage of the law by refusing to remit at par in exchange acceptable to us, and refusing to pay in money, checks presented to them by our agents. We, therefore, can not handle checks drawn upon these banks. Every such check would necessarily be returned by us with a notice of dishonor after presentation.
